Scalar Healing Lounge

Scalar healing is an amazingly simple way to improve your health. You heal while you sit, lay back or sleep. Just read a book or listen to music.

The scalar device produces a healing field about your lounge chair that gently nurtures your body. The waves provide a safe and effective way to heal holistically. Much of the pioneering work for scalar wave healing came from Nikola Tesla who first identified the new form of radio waves.

Scalar Healing has been reported to:

- Improve focus and attention
- Enhance body circulation
- Assist concentration
- Stimulate natural immune functions
- Enhance general

wellbeing (also for your pets)

- Enhance permeability of cell walls
- Improve cell nutrient absorption and waste detoxification
- Reduce pain and inflammation
- Enhance sleep quality
- Improve healing of injuries and surgery
- Reduce symptoms of anxiety and depression
- Reduce migraines and headaches
- Speed up natural healing especially for fungus, virus and bacterial infections • Reduce intestinal parasites and irritable bowel symptoms • Improve emotional wellbeing • Increase cell metabolism and assists with weight management • Improve stress management • Improve Energy levels • Stimulate brain functions and reduce the impact of dementia

How Scalar Healing Works

We believe that human cells, in addition to using chemical signalling molecules, also use subtle scalar fields to communicate the cell's state of health. Sometimes certain energies cause blockages and disrupt this natural communication. We introduce a gentle scalar healing field which displaces the blockages and restores communication. This in turn exposes the diseased cells to the body's defences.

Scalar healing waves are also believed to enhance or "charge" the Mitochondria - the "power stations" inside each cell. This releases into cells much-needed energy to open and remove the blockages. With blockages removed, our body will return to its natural healthy state.

Scalar healing waves are sometimes thought of as an intelligence field, carrying messages of intent to the body, which are acted on at the cellular level.

Scalar healing may not be like anything you have experienced before. It works silently, gently and given a little time is very effective.

What to Expect

Before you settle into the beautiful Rubelli genuine leather Italian lounge, your practitioner will confirm the healing field around your chair is fully operating. You too can see a representation on a screen.

Now give your body time to soak in the gentle healing waves. You may feel the waves as they ebb, flow and gently ripple through your body. Some say it tickles. Many people do not feel anything. The effects though are often noticed in the days that follow the session.

Bring your book and water bottle. Mobile phones and other electronic devices are discouraged as they counter the scalar healing field.

For best results it is recommended to spend at least 1.0 - 1.5 hours in the scalar lounge.
